

THE RECORD OF CRIME.

Remanded for Enquiry—After the Apples
-Berbner Sent for Trial—Switzer Discharged—To Rest Till After the Fair.

A charge of burglary laid by Israel Robin-owich against Henry J. Yanoover and Harris
Yanoover was adjourned till Wednesday.

A charge of illegal sale of liquor against George Whelan, Centre street, was dismissed.

Michael Colliner, charged with cruelty to a cat by setting a dog to worry tabby, was discharged.

Eugene Smith, John Ward, and Wm. Murray, three boys who without paying for the same took out a rowboat from the boathouse of Neil Smith, were allowed to go with a caution, as Mr. Smith declined to press the charge.

Edward Looney, a boy about 13 years of age, was fined $2 without costs or three days for stealing apples from an orchard.

Wm. Jones, a coloured man, was fined $10 and costs or 60 days for assaulting P.C.
Martin when the officer was arresting a prisoner.

Max Berbner was committed for trial on two charges of obtaining money by false pretences under circumstances already fully detailed in THE MAIL.

Tobias Switzer, who has been in custody for some time on charges of assaulting his wife and drunkenness, was brought up and after hearing the evidence discharged.

Frank Lanzor, of Chatham, and Charles Seder, of Rochester, were fined $10 and costs each or 20 days, on a charge of trespass. Frank and Charles must thus forego the pleasure of mingling in the crowd at the fair.

Frank and Melville Losey were arrested yesterday on a charge of horse-stealing, preferred against them by W. Middleton, of Gerrard street east. Just before the adjournment of the Police Court prisoners were admitted to bail on the application of Mr. Murdoch.

Edward Sparrow was convicted of assaulting Stephen Parsons and of using insulting language towards Mrs. Parsons. For the first offence he was fined $25 and costs or 60 days, and for the second offence $1 and costs or 60 days, the two terms to run concurrently.

The charges of keeping a lottery laid against several tailors and jewellers were adjourned till Friday.

The four boys charged with taking part in the school fight appeared in court and had their cases adjourned for a day.

Twenty charges of drunkenness were disposed of by Magistrate Denison.

Mat. Roonan was fined $25 and costs or sixty days for attacking an Italian organ grinder. Wm. Oxford was mulcted in $0 and costs or 12 days for being drunk, which will ensure his safety till after the Exhibition.

John Tacey, on remand, was charged with stealing a horse from Mrs. Douglas, Elm street. The evidence showed that Tacey got the horse to sell, the price fixed by the owner being $70 or over. Mrs. Douglas found that the horse had been sold for $70, but the money had not been handed over. Since Tacey's arrest Mrs. Douglas has received the $70, and the case was dismissed.

THE RECORD OF CRIME.

Remanded for Enquiry — After the Apples — Berbner Sent for Trial — Switzer Discharged — To Rest Till After the Fair.

A charge of burglary laid by Israel Robinson against Henry J. Yanoover and Harris Yanoover was adjourned till Wednesday.

A charge of illegal sale of liquor against George Whelan, Centre street, was dismissed.

Michael Colliner, charged with cruelty to a cat by setting a dog to worry tabby, was discharged.

Eugene Smith, John Ward, and Wm. Murray, three boys who without paying for the same took out a rowboat from the boathouse of Neil Smith, were allowed to go with a caution, as Mr. Smith declined to press the charge.

Edward Looney, a boy about 13 years of age, was fined $2 without costs or three days for stealing apples from an orchard.

Wm. Jones, a coloured man, was fined $10 and costs or 60 days for assaulting P.C. Martin when the officer was arresting a prisoner.

Max Berbner was committed for trial on two charges of obtaining money by false pretences under circumstances already fully detailed in THE MAIL.

Tobias Switzer, who has been in custody for some time on charges of assaulting his wife and drunkenness, was brought up and after hearing the evidence discharged.

Frank Lanzor, of Chatham, and Charles Seder, of Rochester, were fined $10 and costs each or 20 days, on a charge of trespass. Frank and Charles must thus forego the pleasure of mingling in the crowd at the fair.

Frank and Melville Losey were arrested yesterday on a charge of horse-stealing, preferred against them by W. Middleton, of Gerrard street east. Just before the adjournment of the Police Court prisoners were admitted to bail on the application of Mr. Murdoch.

Edward Sparrow was convicted of assaulting Stephen Parsons and of using insulting language towards Mrs. Parsons. For the first offence he was fined $25 and costs or 60 days, and for the second offence $1 and costs or 60 days, the two terms to run concurrently.

The charges of keeping a lottery laid against several tailors and jewellers were adjourned till Friday.

The four boys charged with taking part in the school fight appeared in court and had their cases adjourned for a day.

Twenty charges of drunkenness were disposed of by Magistrate Denison.

Mat. Roonan was fined $25 and costs or sixty days for attacking an Italian organ grinder. Wm. Oxford was fined $10 and costs or 12 days for being drunk, which will ensure his safety till after the Exhibition.

John Tacey, on remand, was charged with stealing a horse from Mrs. Douglas, Elm street. The evidence showed that Tacey got the horse to sell, the price fixed by the owner being $70 or over. Mrs. Douglas found that the horse had been sold for $70, but the money had not been handed over. Since Tacey's arrest Mrs. Douglas has received the $70, and the case was dismissed.

(Toronto Daily Mail - September 9, 1890)